

CYBERSECURITY STAFF AUGMENTATION

OUR EXPERIENCE, YOUR WAY

If you have more cybersecurity projects than resources to complete them, or need security personnel with highly specialized skills on a project basis, you're not alone. Adding a temporary employee with the right experience and the right qualifications has never been easier. With seasoned practitioners in every cybersecurity discipline, Avertium can help you finish your next project strong.

SCALABILITY, FLEXIBILITY, RELIABILITY

Regardless of projects that span weeks or months, Avertium has the depth of bench to embed personnel at your designated location(s) for one or multiple concurrent projects. In support of the success of your resource and project goals, oversight is provided by senior Avertium consultants.

With this added rigor and our professional services capabilities, you have the flexibility of outsourcing parts or entire projects without the loss of momentum that comes from having to onboard multiple firms.
